The story

Oh!SixSeven was born in June 2022 as a initiative to promote and tell the stories of the #067valley. In November 2022 we launched the first edition of the Oh!SixSeven newsletter, sparking the interest of many within the 067-area.

We believe there is a gap within the coverage of prominent local media when it comes to serving our rural areas. We are often forgotten and Oh!SixSeven intends to fill this gap.

The 067-valley covers the areas of Otjiwarongo, Tsumeb, Otavi, Grootfontein, Outjo, the Etosha National Park, Waterberg Plateau Park, Epupa, Kamanjab, Khorixas and Kalkfeld.

This area is estimated to have about 200 000 inhabitants and is often considered to be the heart of agricultural production - harbouring the maize triangle and being Namibia's number one cattle producing area.
